

My family and I listen to this station every day. My son, who is ten, does not want to listen to any other station. We think that this station is a great service to our community. I work as a special education teacher's assistant and we leave this station on, with the parent's permission, in are classroom every day.